REVIEW PROCESS

The primary review criteria: artistic excellence and how the award will impact the artistic career of the artist. The Artist Fellowship Program is NOT a project grant program.

- According to broad and general category selection, applicants are assembled into manageable review groups with a peer panel independently reviewing and scoring applications through the on-line platform. (Note: at this stage applications are reviewed for no more than 15 minutes each.)
- A secondary panel comprised of a wide range of discipline experts is convened to review top scoring applicants. This panel provides preliminary scores on-line, then convenes for an in-person discussion and recommends final scores.
 - Artistic Excellence awards are given at two tiers and are determined by final scores.
 - Emerging Recognition awards are determined by reviewers who identify artists of exceptional talent who are early in the development of their artistic career.
- Funding recommendations are presented to the Connecticut Arts Council for approval.

Artistic Excellence: We acknowledge that artist excellence and merit are very hard to define, so in lieu of a static definition below, we are leaning on resources from the field to guide our interpretation of what artistic excellence means. Here are two of the articles we go back to when grappling with what artistic excellence means "Divining 'Artistic Excellence'" <http://www.artsjournal.com/wetheaudience/2014/05/devining-artistic-excellence.html> and the NEA's Art Works grant review guidelines <https://www.arts.gov/grants-organizations/art-works/application-review>
